Implementation

Every member of our school community has a role to play in the implementation of the code of behaviour – parents, pupils and all staff members. Teachers, SNAs and parents will lead by example and by treating each other and the children with respect and understanding. It is of the utmost importance that all partners in the education process are consistent, fair and vigilant. Rules will be kept to a minimum. Emphasis is placed on positive behaviour and affirmation of doing the right thing. Staff at Mallow C.N.S. will endeavour at all times to ensure that discipline is applied in a fair and consistent manner. Due regard will be given within reason to the age of the pupils and to individual difference. Good behaviour will be encouraged and rewarded. Where difficulties arise, parents will be contacted at an early stage and help from outside agencies will be sought where necessary.

Bullying

The most common forms of bullying are aggressive physical contact, name-calling, intimidation, extortion, isolation, taunting and cyber bullying. Bullying will not be tolerated in Mallow C.N.S. and parents will be expected to cooperate with the school at all times in dealing with instances of bullying in accordance with the school's Anti-Bullying Policy.

The school takes particular care to intervene early in responding to the needs, fears or anxieties of individual members in a sensitive manner. Issues in relation to bullying are explored continually during SPHE lessons and using Circle Time, Drama, Walk Tall etc.

Should a parent/guardian have any concerns which need to be discussed with a teacher, all staff members are more than willing to facilitate a meeting, made through the proper channels i.e. a phone call to the office, or a note to the class teacher to arrange a convenient time for both parties. The first person to be informed should be the class teacher.

This arrangement ensures that all concerns are dealt with in a dignified, meaningful manner, without infringing on valuable teaching time. Isolated incidents of aggressive behaviour, while not to be condoned, cannot be described as bullying. Incidents of bullying will be dealt with in the same manner as breaches of discipline – already outlined in our Code of Behaviour.

In the case where a parent reports a bullying incident, the school reserves the right to inform the relevant parties of the identity of the person making the complaint, when this is deemed necessary

Affirming positive behaviour

Here in Mallow Community National School we try at all times to place greatest emphasis on positive reinforcement of good behaviour. We believe that this leads to better self-discipline and we place a greater emphasis on rewards and incentives rather than on sanctions.

Any written material related to this intervention programme will be securely stored in the school.

School Rules

Mallow Community National School is committed to inclusion, fairness and equality. In order for our school to function effectively and well, we believe that it is important that everyone abides by our school rules. Unacceptable Behaviour

Three levels of misbehaviour are recognised: level 1 - minor, level 2 - serious and level 3 - gross. All everyday instances of a minor nature are dealt with by the class teacher, or the supervising teacher at break-times. In cases of repeated serious misbehaviour or single instances of gross misbehaviour parents/guardians will be involved at an early stage and invited to meet the teacher and/or the principal to discuss their child's behaviour.

Examples of Level 1 Behaviours include (minor misbehaviours):

- In instances of gross misbehaviour, the school may invoke its right to suspend and/or expel

Sanctions

The purpose of a sanction is to bring about a change in behaviour by:

- helping students to learn that their behaviour is unacceptable
- helping them to recognise the effect of their actions and behaviour on others

- helping students (in ways appropriate to their age and development) to understand that they have choices about their own behaviour and that all choices have consequences
- helping them to learn to take responsibility for their behaviour.
- reinforcing the boundaries set out in the code of behaviour

In instances of more serious breaches of school standards, sanctions may be needed to:

- prevent serious disruption of teaching and learning
- keep the student, or other students or adults, safe.

Sanctions will relate as closely as possible to the behaviour. Additional examples of sanctions include:

1. Praising the positive behaviours of other pupils in the class. Teacher operating from an area in close proximity to the pupil that is misbehaving.
2. Non-verbal warning e.g. making pupil aware that you can see their behaviour.
3. Verbal reprimand including advice on how to improve behaviour
4. Losses of privileges e.g. play time, playground, golden time etc.
5. Restorative Practice reflection worksheets
6. Temporary removal to another class. Child is given work to continue with, in another classroom.
7. Referral to the principal.
8. Principal communicates with parents.
9. Exclusion (Suspension or Expulsion) from school (in accordance with Rule 130 of the Rules for National Schools as amended by circular and Education Welfare Act 2000).

Individual Behaviour Plans

If a child is not responding positively to class supports in relation to his/her behaviour, the teacher will begin the process of drawing up a behaviour improvement plan. Behaviour plans will be drawn up on a case by case basis. This plan is usually worked out with the parent/guardian so that the teacher can get a greater understanding of the rewards/sanctions that may work best for each child.

- If the poor behaviour continues, the teacher will meet with the child's parents/guardian again
- If there is no improvement following the second parent/teacher meeting and if the child is still behaving inappropriately, the parent/guardian will be called to meet with the principal where the situation will be discussed in detail. Guidelines will be drawn up for future behaviour in the school and playground.
- The school reserves the right to arrange a meeting with the parents/guardians of a child at any time, should the child's behaviour be deemed to be unacceptable.

- If a parent refuses to meet with a class teacher the matter will be referred to the principal. Any refusal to meet with the principal will automatically be referred to the Chairperson of the Board of Management and will be regarded as a serious breach of cooperation in our school behaviour policy.
- If the Chairperson deems that despite intervention, behaviour has not improved, then the child's school placement may need to be considered.

Suspension and Expulsion

Before serious sanctions such as suspension or expulsion are used, the normal channels of communication between school and parents/guardians will be utilised.

Suspension

For gross misbehaviour or repeated instances of serious misbehaviour suspension may be considered. Parents/Guardians concerned will be invited to come to the school to discuss their child's case.

Where there are repeated instances of serious misbehaviour

1. the chairperson of the board of management will be informed
2. the parents/guardians will be requested in writing to attend at the school to meet the principal and the Chairperson of the Board of Management
3. If the parents/guardians do not give an undertaking to support the school in trying to bring about modification in the child's behaviour, the pupil may be suspended for a period.

Prior to suspension, where possible, the principal may review the case in consultation with teachers and other members of the school community involved, with due regard to records of previous misbehaviours, their pattern and context, sanctions and other interventions used and their outcomes and any relevant medical information. Suspension will be in accordance with the Rules for National Schools and the Education Welfare Act 2000.

In the case of gross misbehaviour, where it is necessary to ensure that order and discipline are maintained and to secure the safety of the pupils, the board may authorise the chairperson or principal to sanction an immediate suspension for a period not exceeding three school days, pending a discussion of the matter with the parents.

Expulsion

Expulsion may be considered in an extreme case, in accordance with the Rules for National Schools and the Education Welfare Act 2000. Before suspending or expelling a pupil, the board/chairperson of the board shall notify the local education welfare officer in writing, in accordance with section 24 of the Education Welfare Act.

Removal of suspension (Reinstatement)

Before a child who has been suspended is readmitted to the school, the parent/s or guardian and the child will meet with the principal. The purpose of this meeting will be to obtain from the parents an assurance that they will play their part in bringing about the necessary behaviour modification in the child. The meeting will also give the principal the opportunity to ascertain that the reinstatement of the child in the school will not constitute a risk to the pupil's own safety or that of the other pupils or staff. The principal will facilitate the preparation of a behaviour plan for the pupil if required and will re-admit the pupil formally to the class.

Before/after school

Parents are reminded that the staff of the school does not accept responsibility for pupils before the official opening time of 9a.m. or after the official closing time of 1.40 p.m. (infants) 2.40 p.m. (other classes) except where pupils are engaged in an extra-curricular activity organised by the school and approved by the board of management. Pupils involved in such activities are expected to behave in accordance with the school's code of behaviour.

Children with Special Educational Needs (SEN)

All children are required to comply with the code of behaviour. However, the school recognises that children with SEN may require assistance in understanding certain rules. Specialised behaviour plans will be put in place in consultation with parents/guardians and the class teacher, learning support/resource teacher, and/or principal. The school will work closely with parents/guardians to ensure that optimal support is given. Cognitive development will be taken into account at all times. Professional advice from psychological assessments will be invaluable.

Children may be taught strategies to assist a pupil with SEN to adhere to the rules and thus provide peer support. This will be done in a supportive and safe way, acknowledging and respecting the difference in all individuals.

Communicating with Parents

Communicating with parents/guardians is central to maintaining a positive approach to dealing with children. Parents/Guardians and teachers should develop a joint strategy to address specific difficulties, in addition to sharing a broader philosophy which can be implemented at home and in school.

A high level of co-operation and open communication is seen as an important factor encouraging positive behaviour in the school. Structures and channels designed to maintain a high level of communication among staff and between staff, pupils and parents/guardians have been established and are being reviewed regularly.

Parents/Guardians are encouraged to talk in confidence to teachers about any significant developments in a child's life (in the past or present), which may affect the child's behaviour. The following methods of communication are to be used within the school:

- Informal/formal parent/teacher meetings
- Through the school app
- Through children's homework sheet
- Letters/notes from school to home and from home to school
- School notice board
- School website/emails
- Text messages
- Phone calls

Community National Schools place a huge emphasis on parental involvement. Teachers are encouraged to develop a very positive/open relationship with parents/guardians and to enable them to help their child as much as possible. Mallow CNS adheres to this philosophy and we hope that this will have a positive effect on pupil behaviour in the school.
